

Orchestrating Trade

Meteco is a leading ferrous and non-ferrous scrap metals recycling and trading firm, providing a wide range of scrap metals management and trading services to a substantial and diversified portfolio of clients. Founded in 1978, the firm is headquartered in Thessaloniki, Greece and maintains business relations with entities from 19 countries in 4 continents.

We act as a trading intermediary and service provider offering a range of value-adding services. Our services span every step in the scrap metals supply chain. Our breadth of expertise affords a unique perspective, enabling us to offer integrated solutions that improve our partners' business performance.

Empowering people

Our people are our most valuable asset and are regarded as an investment with a crucial role in the entire development of our firm. It is only with the determination and dedication of our people that we can serve our clients, generate long-term value and contribute to the broader public. Regardless of seniority, every employee at Meteco helps shape our work ethic and build our strategy.
